

PENN RELAYS. OXFORD WIN TWO EVENTS

Penn

Running a very ^{clever} ~~fast~~ race in the four by one-mile relay
Oxford's team won in 17 min., 35.3

~~Highly commensurate with the Oxford team's performance~~ Now for the exciting two-mile relay; four men each running half-a-mile.

At the end of the third leg Boyd (Oxford) fell behind an American and Johnson took over with a leeway of 30 yards to make up, an all but impossible handicap against the Manhattan star, Muellers.... On the last bend Johnson passed the American, Oxford winning the race in 7 minutes, 40.6

~~10.6 sec.~~