THE PRINCE AND PRINCESS OF MONACO IN MAJORCA.-

The "Deo Juventa II" on which Prince Rainier and his bride are on their honeymoon trip, is at anchor in the bay of Port-mentor.

The newly-weds land are welcomed by the President of the Nautical Club who accompanies them to the site where the Prince selects the spot on which to build the house he plans.

During their tour of different sites, they are the object of affectionate greetings.

In the Nautical Club a folkloric dance exhibition is rendered and they are given an opportunity to admire these manifestations of popular Majorcan choreography.
