

ITALIAN FASHION'S DEFILING AT CASERTA ROYAL PALACE

Many Italian fashion houses (Dressmakings and "boutiques") have showed the new summer fashion which is in favour of the wool cloth.

On the afternoon, at the beautiful avenues and before the fountains of the Royal Palace, the models have exhibited morning, afternoon dresses for town and for beach.

On the evening, at large hall, the evening dresses.

Sequences

View of the gardens and bathings ponds of the Royal Palace.

Three famous fountains of Royal Palace

- 1) Wool blue alpaca cloth with a straw hat, showed by Terry.
- 2) " Crystall": white wool overcoat with a japanese-straw hat.
- 3) " Imperial rose" dedicated to Empress Soraya. Its waist is high. the colours are white and blue, that is ones of Soraya. (Schubert)
- 4) Afternoon gown, with embroydery, ribbons and braids.
- 5) Beige wool evening dress, draped, with a scarf. It is by Gattinoni and recalls the Etruscan line.
- 6) Cocktail dress, blue wool. It has a silver embroydery on the waist. (Gattinoni)
- 7) A dress by Capucci. It recalls the fourteenth Florentin century line. A wide overcoat of the same colour.
- 8) A stylish made dress dedicated to young women. Black is the favoured color for every hour (by Simonetta)
- 9) Another dress by Simonetta
- 10) A white wool veil dress, tight on the wairst with a blue satin scarf. The " S " gold embroidered recalls Schubert ed Empress Soraya, at together.

All dresses are passing together