

International Canoe-Slalom near Menschau/Nifel

not exclusive

The water had a temperature of 4 degrees over zero, when the canoe-slalom took place on the torrents of the Rur near Menschau. Beside of German sportsmen, those of Luxemburg, of Belgium, and of France shared in this competition. The course was full of obstacles, and many of the participators capsized. The men's competition was won by ~~the~~ Ernest G i e r e r /Stuttgart (No. 103), and the ladies' competition was won by the German world's-champion Rosemarie B i e s i n g e r /Stuttgart (No. 127)

113?

6-587240