

Per G.B.

motion picture

MAY

14TH
MAY 1954

CONSTRUCTION OF A NEW HYDROELECTRIC STATION

A giant hydroelectric station is being erected on the largest river in Central Asia - Syr Darya.

The future station will furnish electric current to two Soviet republics - Uzbekistan and Tadjikistan.

The builders are blocking the channel of the river.

Now the river will flow toward the station where two turbines will begin to work at the end of the current year.

Lower Turbine
None for Monday

5/14