

QUEEN AND DUKE TOUR WEST

Her Majesty visited farms on the Duchy of Cornwall estate during her two day tour of Devon and Cornwall. On such farms is ~~produced~~<sup>made</sup>, as part of the rich dairy production, the famous Cornish cream.

The Queen and Duke made a brief stay at Liskeard, there Her Majesty had the unusual experience of signing the visitors book with a quill pen.

Another farm was visited at Stoke Climsland, where more of the Duchy's tenants were presented.

(72) At Launceston the guard of honour was mounted by the Cornwall unit of the ATC, the first time ~~the~~<sup>7</sup> Air Training Corps has been so privileged.
