

QUEEN REVIEWS ST. JOHN'S AMBULANCE BRIGADE

A great army uniformed for peace paraded before Her Majesty.

As Sovereign Head of the Order the Queen had already invested Princess Margaret as a Dame Grand Cross of the 20 Order of St. John. And now 22,000 of the St. John Ambulance Brigade were reviewed by the Queen in Hyde Park.

79 years ago the Order formed the St. John Ambulance Association to teach first-aid to the public. To-day

40 127,000 members perform ~~this~~ to humane work in ~~England, Wales~~ Britain and Northern Ireland, selflessly and without pay. How well the Brigade merits Her Majesty's support.
