

FLASHES

Boarding

Dorton House/School for the blind was officially opened by Princess Margaret. A former country mansion it was converted at a cost of £100,000. It accommodates 140 children from the age of five, and ~~Using its own highly developed teaching methods the school~~ educates the ~~children~~^m, despite their affliction, up to the standards of the ordinary secondary modern school. If they want to stay after the age of sixteen they can receive instruction in crafts. Many educated at earlier schools also coming under the Royal London Society for the Blind have gone into industry and earned a good living.

20

40

5-6