

General
Lieutenant/Bourne said goodbye to Malaya. He has retired as Director General of Operations there and leaves the here bidding the High Commissioner Sir Donald MacGillivray country much more nearly settled than when he took over.

Lieutenant General Bourne said goodbye to Malaya. He has retired as Director General of Operations there and leaves the country (here bidding High Commissioner Sir Donald MacGillivray farewell) much more nearly settled than when he took over. General Bourne <sup>l</sup> ~~now~~ assumes the Middle East <sup>Command</sup> ~~Command~~ in October

(176)
The Junior Rodeo in the little town of John Day, eastern Oregon. Paucy youngsters earning money for local charities.
One or two girls
~~part~~ took part and stayed put as long as any of the boys.

--
It was tough sport with a lot of real risk thrown in.

~~What?~~