

LAST SUEZ TROOPS REACH CYPRUS

On the quayside at Famagusta landed the last men and equipment to leave the Suez Canal Zone. Eleven officers and 68 men now arriving in Cyprus completed the evacuation of Egypt five days inside the 20-month period agreed in 1954. It marks the end of a chapter in Britain's Middle East affairs. The new base is in Cyprus.