

~~WIMBLEDON CHAMPIONSHIPS~~ Championships.

Serving here at Wimbledon the left-hander Fraser, ranked fourth in Australia, met young Robert Wilson the R.A.F. boy who the day before had defeated Budge Patty, the Wimbledon champion in 1950.

23 Wilson managed to keep level in the first two sets of this day's game but began to tire and lost the third more easily to the Australian.

45 AND FRASER HAD SEEN TO IT THAT
There ~~is~~ now no British survivor in the last 16 of the men's singles.

59 Anne Shilcock of Great Britain met a doughty opponent in the person of Althea Gibson the coloured girl who plays with great power and a long reach. (79) In spite of reverses Anne secured the first set 6-4.

87 93 But the aggressive masculine game of the American girl was too strong and in every sense ~~put~~ the skids under the English lass.

106 Eventually Althea Gibson took two more sets 6-2, 6-1, to move on ~~towards~~ towards her goal of the women's singles.
