

THE QUEEN AND DUKE IN SCOTLAND

7 At the McEwan Hall of Glasgow University the Duke of Edinburgh, in his capacity as Chancellor, presided at the Graduation ceremonies. Among those he capped were 20 The Reverend Ronald Selby Wright The Radio Padre <sup>DOCTOR OF DIVINITY</sup> ~~Imam~~ Sir John Banks Lord Provost 37 of Edinburgh who received a doctorate of Law together with Miss Elizabeth Loeker, ~~and~~ 44 ~~THEN THE DUKE WENT DOWN TO CAP~~ Professor Pares who was in a wheel chair in the body of the hall.

52 On arrival at Berwick on Tweed the Queen and Duke were met by the Mayor, Mrs. Adams and the Lord Lieutenant and then the Queen inspected the guard of honour formed by the Kings Own Scottish Borderers before continuing their tour of the town, ~~DRIVING TO~~ <sup>ALL ALONG THE ROUTE THE CHILDREN HAD A GOOD VIEW OF</sup> 88 ~~IN~~ the gracious Georgian Town House, recently restored, the Queen and the Duke ~~THE STEPS AND WENT INTO~~ <sup>WHICH ARE</sup> mounted ~~into~~ the attics to see the old prison cells, still equipped with chains and manacles.

100 At the Berwick Salmon Fisheries a fine salmon taken from the estuary in the morning's tide was offered to her Majesty.

121 On the royal retinue drove to Eyemouth the largest Borough in Berwickshire.
132 Then to Duns <sup>ALSO</sup> (where the Queen and the Duke signed the visitors book) ~~of this ancient~~ <sup>THE TRULY</sup> borough which is the country administrative centre.

158 After a presentation by a winsome maid as the old term has it, the borough Reiver cantered through the square to dip the standard in salute celebrating the defeat of an English raiding party in the fourteenth century.

CONTINUED:

QUEEN AND DUKE IN SCOTLAND.

196 At Lennoxlove in Haddington Her Majesty presented the gold medal of the United East Lothian Agricultural Society together with the various cups won by competitors. <sup>215 THEN HER MAJESTY</sup> ~~she~~ herself received a gift from a very self-possessed young lady.

231 ~~LATER~~ <sup>LATER</sup> came the parade of stock ~~and~~ the beef cattle waddling along in mute testimony to the excellence of the grazing. <sup>256</sup> ~~to~~ <sup>THE BULLS & COWS FOLLOWED BY FOALS</sup> big boned draught horses.

259 In Tranent where coal was first worked by the monks of Newbattle the Queen talked to the rescue workers and miners from nearby pits.

274 At nightfall thousands of people gathered to watch the forecourt ceremony at Holyroodhouse when the members of the Royal Scottish Country dancing performed reels and strathspeys on the special platform. <sup>TEAM</sup>

318 Her Majesty remarked to the dancers how much she enjoyed their performance.

319 The next day the royal pair in their robes of the Order of The Thistle drove to St. Giles Cathedral where in the splendour of the Chapel Lord Mathews and Sir John Stirling were installed as Knights of the Thistle.

7

at the McEwan Hall of Glasgow University in the Duke of Edinburgh in his capacity as Chancellor presided at the Graduation ceremony. Among those he capped were (20) the Reverend Ronald Selby Wright the Radio Padre (28) Sir John Banks, Lord Provost of Edinburgh who received a doctorate of honor together with (37) Miss Elizabeth Hooker and (44) Professor Pares who was in a wheel chair in the body of the hall.

52

On arrival at Berwick on Tweed being a ~~eight~~ hour town of ~~the~~ the Queen, the Duke were met by the Mayor Mrs Adams & the Lord Lieutenant & then the Queen inspected the guard of honor formed by the Kings Own Scottish Borderers before continuing their tour of the town.

88

In the spacious <sup>Seaside</sup> Town House recently restored the Queen & the Duke mounted into the attic's to see the old prison cells still equipped with chains & manacles.

100

at the Berwick Salmon Fisheries a fine salmon taken from the estuary in the morning's tide was offered to her Majesty

121

On the royal return from to Eyemouth the largest Brough
in Berwickshire

132

Then to Inver where the Queen and the Duke signed the visitor book of this ancient brough which is the county administrative centre

158

after a presentation by a winsome maid as the old town has it, the brough REIVER entered through the Square to dip the standard in salute celebrating the defeat of an English raiding party in the fourteenth century

196

at Lemoclove in Haddington her majesty presented the gold medal of the United East Lothian Agricultural Society together with the various cups won by competitors
before herself receiving a gift from a very well
possessed young lady.

231

Then came the parade
of stock ranging the best cattle waddling along in mute testimony to the excellence of the grazing
to the big boned draught horses.

259

In Traill where coal was first worked by the men of Newbattle the Queen talked to the women workers & miners from nearby pits.

274

at nightfall thousands of people gathered to watch the firework ceremony at Holywood house when the members of the Royal Scottish Country Dancing
performed reels and strathspeys
on the special platform.

318

her majesty remarks to the dancers how much she enjoyed their performance

319

The next day the royal pair in their robes of the Order of the Thistle drove to St Giles Cathedral where in the splendor of the chapel Lord Matheson Lord Sir John Stirling were installed as Knights of the Thistle