

LLANGOLLEN :

Please cover the Eisteddfod at Llangollen to-morrow (Tuesday).

Hotel accomodation has been booked outside Llangollen; i.e. at the QUEEN'S HOTEL, OSWESTRY, where two single rooms are available for you for Monday & Tuesday nights.

No police permits are needed, I spoke to the Denbigshire County Police on Friday at Wrexham, was told no police passes required. In case of need , contact organising Secretary, Mrs. Mona Davies, whose No. is :

LLANGOLLEN : 2 2 5 6.

I enclose a page from the "Radio Times" with illustrations of the Eisteddfod. The Boss would like you to look out for a foreign teams, of whom there will be several, dancing on the same spot as indicated in the picture. Teams from various other countries are taking part and if the weather is fine, shots can be made of them dancing beyond the bridge with the Church tower as a backcloth.

TRAINS.

From Paddington :

2.10 h. arriving at 7.05 .
4.10 h. " " 9.50 .

Return :

From Llangollen 4.54. arriving 11.50 hrs.

12.20 arriving 5.15 hrs.
3.5 " 8.35 "

Passes should be collected from the Offices of the Eisteddfod.
The whole job is out of doors this year.