

INTERNATIONAL MUSICAL EISTEDDFOD

7 In day long sunshine the lovely vale of Llangollen on the River Dee welcomed the visitors to the International Eisteddfod. From Vorden in Holland they came.

22 And from Marseilles in France (drums and all) the Escollo de la Mar.

30 From all over Europe, - Yugoslavia, Austria, France, Spain, Ireland, the teams of dancers and singers and instrumentalists gathered for the week of movement and melody, perhaps the best peace conference there ever was. Bringing their own music of Breton-pipes-and-flutes, the Cercle Breton, from Rennes in Brittany.

80 While the Breton dance was rehearsed, in yet another meadow of the rolling countryside around Llangollen the Estonian dance team from Kalev practised their time - honoured steps to the music of the sither and the violin.
