

ALGERIA REBELS START FOREST FIRES

On the outskirts of Algiers the forest of Bainem was ~~blazing~~ <sup>blazing</sup> in many places. Several fires, quite near to buildings

• had been started at the same time by guerilla forces

20 opposing the French. Beaten by the army near the capital they're falling back on sabotage. The dry forest made the work of firemen almost impossible and when these pictures were taken the flames had consumed nearly a thousand acres.

40 Among soldiers fighting the blaze three were killed, some wounded.
