This freak storm swept across part of Kent leaving a trail of severe damage in its wake. The hail-belt was relatively narrow , and as far as I know only engulfed the farms in the Sheldwith/Faversham area.

Shot on farm of Mr Lums,
Gilt Mere Farm
Sheldwith
Faversham. Kent.

COMPLETE DESCRIPTION OF SCENES

As there was only one combined harvester at work, shot the same one from keyhole to breakfast time, to try and make some length, of the harvester's at work...

Also the weather turned out somewhat better, after the job was nearly finished...

The yeald per aerea is approx 25-28 cwts per... not much below average, the best being in the region of 30 cwts....

Because there was much material to shoot on, did a few shots of the cows, who have yielded very good results this year in milk and butter etc...

On Old Surrey Hall farm
(Mr Alec Mitchell) the agent
East Grinstead or to be precise Dormansland..

Shots of the corn going to the drying sheds...
