

Off Famagusta lay the ships that brought the first French troops and supplies to Cyprus. Nearly a thousand men, mostly of ^t French Airforce, arrived as ~~V~~anguard of the 4,000 expected soon, ~~at~~^t ~~the~~. Most of them came from Algeria. To accommodate them, ^a camp ~~was~~^z set up at Tymbou. In that work men of the RAF regiment lent a hand. The camp was inspected by General Ledaure and was soon ready for occupation. ~~Tymbou was a bomber station during the war.~~ The French are in Cyprus, by agreement with Britian, ready to defend their interests in the canal zone.

2a0