

CARNEGIE- Dewar WEDDING

At St. Ninian's Cathedral, Perth, the Princess Royal and Duchess of Gloucester attended the wedding of Lord Carnegie and the Hon. Caroline Dewar. It was Scotland's biggest wedding of the year. The Queen Mother ~~had a~~ ~~reception~~ ~~she~~ had lunched at the Black Watch Regimental Depot close by the Cathedral. ~~Her Majesty~~<sup>3</sup> is Colonel-in-Chief of the Regiment. The bride was escorted by her father, Lord Forteviot, who gave her away. Her gown was of white satin <sup>with shoulders of</sup> a design of thistles, heather and roses ~~is~~ embroidered in seed pearls ~~and~~ gold-and-silver thread. ~~she~~ brave ~~bride~~. <sup>26</sup> [The ~~21~~-year-old groom, ~~James Carnegie~~, is a cousin of the Queen. As, the newlyweds were about to leave for the ~~reception~~ reception at Dupplin Castle there was almost a mishap, Lord Carnegie stepping on his bride's veil. Fortunately no harm was done.... * <sup>is</sup> The honeymoon/being spent in France and Italy.

30

50

70

19085