

COUNTRY TOWN EVENT LIB.NO. ISSUE NO. DATE

Holland — DUTCH RECLAIM ANOTHER SLICE OF ZUIDER ZEE. 25093 2667 20.9.56.
Engineers complete 60-mile dyke enclosing area larger than Isle of Wight.

GV Air V showing the dyke nearly closed except for stretch of 12000 metres in Aug., 1956. G Air V Lely town the future capital place of the new polder. SV the South East corner of the polder to be showing second pumping engine embellished with a tile tableau showing a farmer and fisherman shaking hands over the Dyke. CU Tableaux, SV the Northern part of the polder showing 3rd pumping house. G Air V of dyke before final closing. CU Map showing plans for closing Dyke. SCU Crane grabbing mud and lifting. CU Workmen guiding crane. SV Crane dropping mud onto wall of dyke. SV the ship Van Hasselt on which Queen Juliana followed the last phase of work. SCU Queen Juliana viewing the proceedings. SV The last crane load of dirt being dropped onto dyke. SV Workmen cheer pan down to closed dyke. SCU Crane driver bringing apparatus to a standstill. SV Workmen wade through mud to greet each other. G Air V the Dyke now finished. Air V GV walls of dyke showing out of water. GV Cultivated field.

LENGTH: 106ft. (35km.)