

Arctic manoeuvres

Alaska: Perfecting the defence of her arctic frontiers, America ^{stages} ~~stages~~ ~~manoeuvres~~ manoeuvres in Central Alaska; ~~with~~ ten thousand men ^{IN} ~~up to~~ up to ninety degrees of frost.

In this white wilderness, there are no railheads or ordnance dumps - so the entire force has to be supplied by air.

Then, in a triumph for modern mechanisation, heavy armoured units move up in a full-scale offensive.

Fire

London: Extensive damage followed an early-morning blaze in Bloomsbury, discovered by a cleaner ^{the fire had broken out} in the Egyptology Department of University College, which is used as a Library, lecture-room and offices.

Though ^{the building} ~~this part of the building~~ had to be vacated - fortunately, no valuable relics or manuscripts were lost.

Boxing

~~London: Non-stop action at the Albert Hall, with cockney youngsters battling out the finals of the Federation of Boys' Clubs championships.~~

London: Non-stop action at the Albert Hall, with cockney youngsters battling out the finals of the Federation of Boys' Clubs championships. From Hoxton, Freddy King wins his third title. Roy Beaman retired with a cut eye.

^{Now} ~~He~~ a couple of battling paperweights, G. Connor of Kensington and A. Robson of Shoreditch.

These championships have long been the breeding ground of national ~~champs~~ champions like Benny Caplan, Harry Mizer and Terry Allen.

And in championship style, A. Robson ^{GAINED THE VERDICT.} ~~got off the canvas to gain the verdict...~~