

LEWIS (Contd.)

251

~~Without being unduly pessimistic about the future it's nice to see that they'll know what to do in case of emergency.~~ Anyway, it's always a comfort to wake up and look at a pretty nurse.

COACHING CLUB.

Coaching days are here again --- the season opens with a run from the Magazine in Hyde Park. . . over Hammersmith Bridge to Ranelagh.

KINGSFORD SMITH AND ULM.

Memorial to two men who lost their lives furthering progress in the air. Lord Galway, the Governor General of New Zealand paid tribute to Charles Ulm and Sir Charles Kingsford Smith as they received a last salute.

KING INSPECTS GRENADIERS.

SHEEP.

A picturesque and strangely artistic scene from the Commonwealth --- rounding up sheep for dipping in the broad acres overseas. It's bathed in light down under --- and the sheep don't like it very much, but those shaggy coats conceal a lot of things that aren't mentioned in polite society, so it has to be done. But when it's over they can get back to the farm again -- homeward towards a background of drifting clouds.
