

Gad, sir ! The Air Force is right out of date. Are we going to take it lying down? Well, we needn't worry too much because it turns out to be a revival of old-time 'planes --- triplanes and pushers that look like a cross between a box kite and a bird-cage. Now watch a magnificent close-up of modern planes in flight before a bombing demonstration. Bombing --- and how do you feel, sitting about a couple of yards away from where a bomb lands? Mass parachute drop. The set piece depicts an air raid between Northland and Southland --- those two places are always fighting! And the final thrill --- incendiary bullet hits captive balloon and brings it down in flames.

WEDDINGS.

Married at Marylebone Register Office --- John Loder, one of the original talkie stars and his attractive French bride Mlle. ~~Mickie~~ Micheline Cheirel. Best man was Clive Brook, so although a film wedding it was a pretty old-school-tie affair.

At St Paul's Knightsbridge --- a society wedding; Miss Joan Goschen married to Mr H. Meynell. Among her attendants were four little pages and two little girls dressed in the Elizabethan period. Very very attractive they looked too. In fact we think it very sporting of the bride to invite such opposition in a picture of which she should be the only star.
