

WIMBLEDON.

Crawford and Quist of Australia are the holders of the men's double title and they went on their way this year at the expense of two Chinese players, Mr Kho and Mr Lum. Most of you know which is Crawford and which Quist, but I'm afraid I don't know which is Kho and which is Lum. Helen Jacobs, who so nearly won the ladies' championship last year, made one more step towards the title this year when she defeated the Countess de la Valdene. The American girl won her match 6-4, 6-3.

RUGBY LEAGUE.

In the middle it's a bit odd to find a Rugger match in a week-end of sport, but here's one from Australia. England's team met Sydney in a fine open game --- that's a fine kick --- in a fine open --- that's a fine kick --- in a fine open ----- I don't think the others have paid their subscription!
