LORD MAYOR.

Sir Percy Vincent, London's Lord Mayor, received a great welcome when he arrived in Vancouver. At the station he was greeted by old Londoners, and inspected the Royal Canadian Police. After the official welcome and reply Sir Percy received the golden key of freedom of the city and unveiled a monument to Captain George Vancouver.

WRESTLING.

Here is another world championship wrestling match and everything goes according to all-in rules. ~~Waxing~~ Title holder Vince Lopez is taking a challenge from young Dave Levin and Dave Levin is taking everything else from Vince Lopez. Towards the end, the game got too rough for everybody except Lopez. The champ put Levin down for the count and then the rules gave out. The referee gave the verdict to the man on the floor because he thought it was a foul fight and the champ started a new fight because he thought he was a foul referee.

JESSE OWENS.

Jesse Owens, the world's fastest human being, has a word to say about his suspension. So has Eleanor Holm Jarrett, who was ~~also~~ dropped from the swimming team. They say she's going to turn professional. What do you say Eleanor? And what about the ~~messy~~ story of your drinking champagne? In your opinion is champagne good for an athlete in training?
