

OLD CROCKS.

Run a bit hot.

The veteran Car Club held a rally from Beaconsfield to Seer Hill
A reliability trial being the cause and loose teeth being the effect. / These cars are fifty-fifty --- fifty-fifty whether they break down or break up. / All went well until one ran amok.

BLOWING UP COAL BUNKERS.

TTING

The 50th Northumbrian Division Royal Engineers at Little Burn, near Langley Moor had the job of destroying a huge coal hopper. They did it with a charge of 56 pounds of gun cotton. Look out below!
Then the neighbouring ~~in~~ chimney had to come down too.
