The cream of American girlhood on parade to find the ideal girl for 1936. It also serves to find out whether gentlemen still prefer blondes. / Is it a change of heart or just an accident --- Miss America for 1936 is a brunette!

Blonde or brunette --- it doesn't matter what you are at Olympia's Hair and Beauty Fair. This is some of the work in the Fantasy Head-dress Competition. Bit awkward for going to the pictures.

Fancy trying to get a beret on that! At last a woman's crowning glory really is a crown, but a man only gets crowned with a bottle.
