

You don't have to be a Scotsman to appreciate the beauty of the verses of Robert Burns, and although the Dumfries Memorial was unveiled by Mr Ramsay Macdonald as a Scotsman for Scotsmen this is a tribute paid to a great genius which can be shared alike by all who have been privileged to enjoy the work of Scotland's national poet.