

ROYAL GARDEN PARTY.

Ten thousand guests attended their Majesties' first garden party in the grounds of Buckingham Palace. It was a brilliant scene on those spacious lawns as the King and Queen, Queen Mary and other members of the royal family greeted each other affectionate

~~Tea was taken in a red and gold Durbar tent to music from the bands of the Irish Guards and the Royal Air Force and later the~~ distinguished guests were presented, of later the Maj's has moved GOLF. and they front washed through tea friends chatting & smiling

Tony Manerb, last year's champion, drove off first in the American Open, and now watch a magnificent camera study of Ed. Dudley at a short hole. This year's pace was hotter than ever --- sometimes even the ball nearly lost its nerve. There must be something in the air at Oakland Hills to make them putt like this. But with the eyes of the golf world upon him it was Ralph Guldahl of Chicago who staged a whirlwind finish for the lowest aggregate ever made in an open championship. With a record-smashing 281 he sank a short putt on the last green to win fame and fortune and a place in the Ryder Cup team. He's the king of golf in the new world, but his wife is just the ~~sixtyish~~ little woman, with old ideas.
