

MISS CALIFORNIA.

Finding a new beauty queen is a complicated job. The 1937 model must come up to rigid specifications ----- if you're the wrong shape this will surely show you up. The judges have a difficult task this year. All are good but none superb. What they want is one girl who combines all the best qualities of all the others. In fact, they want a girl who's got everything --- and here she comes.