

VOLCANO.

New Guinea --- Rabaul was a place where life moved peacefully along its appointed course despite the fact that it lay in the ~~path~~ shadow of a volcano , but our camera pictures how the dread monster Matape rumbled suddenly into tumultous~~ly~~ life. Acres of boiling mud came sliding down while a two-mile column of smoke lifted its pall into the sky. The lucky ones escaped on a rescuing ship, but hundreds died. When the refugees returned it was to a barren land where vegetation and homes alike were buried.

BRADDOCK V LOUIS.

Chicago --- James J. Braddock held the World's Heavyweight title for two years without defending it. He finally decided to meet the Brown Bomber Joe Louis although Louis had been defeated by Schmeling. Louis won by knock-out in the eighth round to become the new world champion.

ALEXANDRA ROSE DAY.

Alexandra Rose Day continues under the ~~guida~~ patronage of the Duchess of Kent, who has taken over the work instituted by the late Queen Alexandra. Everybody is tired of the ordinary kind of flag day, but everybody buys a rose.

LORD MAYOR IN PARIS.

Paris --- the Lord Mayor of London, Sir George Broadbridge, arrived in state coach to open the British Pavilion of the great exhibition. Inside there was all the fun of the fair --- and our cameraman discovered one of the reasons why the French are said to be a giddy nation.
