

NEW COLOURS FOR GUARDS.

His Majesty the King as Colonel in Chief, was accompanied by his brother the Colonel when he presented new colours to the 1st Battalion Scots Guards. / After ~~the inspection and trooping~~ the old colours were handed over, ~~Then~~ His Majesty performed the actual presentation --- giving to their keeping the new colours which told of old battles --- in former days a rallying point in war, to-day a record of their glorious history. Then the march past, followed by cheers for their royal Colonel in Chief. /
