

QUEENS AND NURSES.

In the grounds of Buckingham Palace Queen Elizabeth and Queen Mary chatted with their guests --- they were nurses, from the International Council of Nurses.

H.A.C.

~~On Monday~~ day, His Majesty the King inspected the H.A.C. -- the Honorable Artillery Company, which is four hundred years old and claims to be the oldest of British Regiments.

FIRE BRIGADE.

The Fire Brigade had its share of royal interest on the occasion of the opening of the new headquarters on the Albert Embankment by the King. These gallant men gave a display which provided many a thrill for our sympathetic Queen.
