

INDIAN TRAIN WRECK.

The most terrible train wreck in the history of Indian railways --- an express crowded with Mohammedans on their way to a festival at Calcutta, plunged down an embankment ~~at Binda~~ killing more than a hundred passengers, and injuring twice that number. Most of the victims were poor villagers, packed together in the front portion of the train. Scenes of indexribable horror followed on the disaster, as ~~doctors~~ ~~and~~ ~~xxx~~ rescue workers from Patna gave what relief they could. ~~to the injured in the early light of the Indian~~.

QUEEN MARY.

Hereford --- Queen Mary drove to this lovely part of our fair country for the purpose of unveiling the King George's Playing Fields at Bishops' Meadow. The city was represented in force, with a welcoming cheer for Her Gracious Majesty.

PRINCETON TRACK MEET.

Princeton, New Jersey --- the Oxford and Cambridge team which had already defeated the American Universities of Harvard and Yale, competed against the sister universities of Princeton and Cornell. ~~British~~ British athletics are looking up, and we hope it is a pointer to the next Olympics --- Oxford and Cambridge won by 7 events to 5.
