

LINCOLN'S HEAD. 392

Mount Rushmore --- Washington and Jefferson are two great Presidents of the United States whose feature have been ~~XXXXXX~~ ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ carved in imperishable granite. To-day, a third great President joins them --- no, you're wrong; it's Abraham Lincoln. More than 400,000 tons of granite have been blasted in the last ten years, ~~in~~ as a monument to America's immortal leaders.

DANISH BRIDGE.

Denmark --- King Christian of Denmark is 67 years old --- and on his birthday he opened the largest bridge in Europe. <sup>The King was accompanied by the Crown Prince</sup> ~~Over~~ two miles long, this massive structure has cost two million <sup>over 2 million</sup> pounds --- and it was built by a British firm.

TENNIS.

Los Angeles --- Helen Wills, the former queen of tennis, has settled her domestic affairs and now tries a come-back in the tennis world. Partnered by Frank Shields, she set to work trying to regain championship form in a match against Brugnon and Dorothy Bundy. <sup>it's</sup> ~~it's~~ The game provided plenty of thrills --- but <sup>that</sup> ~~it's~~ a much more thrilling game/ ~~which~~ Clark Gable and Carole Lombard are playing.