

U.S. LEGION.

395

Seldom does it fall to a man to have a statue erected to him during his lifetime, but the American General Pershing visited Versailles for the unveiling of ~~xxxxxxx~~ this tribute, to himself.

In company with General Lafayette,
~~M. Lebrun the French President, was present --- and the monument~~

monument, to the famous soldier from across the Atlantic, now stands ~~with that~~ ~~of General Lafayette.~~, on the heights of the Colline de Picardie.

At Chateau Thierry, the rank and file of Uncle Sam's Expeditionary Force in the world war was also honoured, and ~~At this unveiling,~~

General Pershing spoke ~~to the massed thousands of American Legionaries who were there to honour their fallen comrades.~~
