

KING AND QUEEN AT BRADFORD AND HALIFAX.

398

From York, their Majesties went on to <sup>Bradford</sup> ~~Halifax~~, where they were entertained by 17,000 scholars singing in Lister Park.

At the Town Hall a guard of honour was inspected, and a bouquet was presented to the Queen by Joan Riley, a Bradford schoolgirl.

At Halifax there was also a reception at the Town Hall, and ~~and~~ another guard of honour was inspected. Among the many prominent people presented to their Majesties was the Australian Rugby Football Team.
