KING AND QUEEN AT BRADFORD AND HALIFAX. 398

From York, their Majesties went on to Helifax, where they were entertained by 17,000 scholars singing in Lister Park.

At the Town Hall a guard of honour was inspected, and a bouquet was presented to the Queen by Joan Riley, a Bradford schoolgirl.

At Halifax there was also a reception at the Town Hall, and many another guard of honour was inspected. Among the mnany prominent people presented to their Majesties was the Australian Rugby Football Team.
