

402

FIRE AT SYDNEY.

Sydney --- what was once a paint factory is now a roaring inferno and firemen from thirteen stations were called to fight the blaze. Bursting drums of bitumen and benzol caused many injuries, and finally the roof caved in with a crash. A hundred thousand pounds' worth of property went up in smoke.