FUR FASHIONS.

It's quite a relief to be able to turn from thoughts of war to the gentle arts of peace. Old Man Winter's knocking at the door, and his girl friend is Dame Fashion. Furs to hypnotize a woman, and paralyze a man. Say which one you'd like, milady --- then go home and take the mothballs out of your tippet. ~~Who~~ wants clothes anyway? (This is ~~not~~ going to be good.) In Seattle, Washington they've got a craze for Hula Dancing, because they say it's good for the figure. So ~~who~~ <sup>why wear</sup> ~~wants~~ a fur coat? You can look just as nice in a skirt of grass. But what'll they say when the man next door wants to borrow the lawn mower?
