408

KING AND QUEEN AT CHURCH.

In the delightful surroundings of the lovely Hertfordshire countryside King George and Queen Elizabeth attended Divine Service at the church of StPaul's Walden Bury. They were smiling and happy as they walked among the parishioners, attended by the Queen's brother. In the little church Her Majesty had unveiled a tablet commemmorating her baptism here. Queen Elizabeth although a Scotswoman, was born in the parish of St Paul's. In the great functions of the big cities or in the simple villages of Britain, our king and queen capture all hearts with their charm and massumin friendliness.

Head Edward with a formation of the Control of the