

408

AIR CRASH.

Ostend --- tragedy overtook an air liner flying to London --- killing in one awful disaster almost an entire royal family. The Grand Duke of Hesse, the Grand Duchess, the Grand Duke's Mother and two sons thus lost their lives, whilst on their way to England to attend the wedding of Prince Ludwig.

LUDWIG WEDDING.

London --- At St Peter's Eaton Square the daughter of Sir Auckland Geddes was married to Prince Ludvig von Hessen. The Duke and Duchess of Kent were present --- also the sisters of the Duchess, Princess Paul and the Countess Toering. The bride and bridegroom left in the shadow of tragedy --- the air-liner disaster that had killed the ~~Grand Duke~~ bridegroom's brother and his family.

AIR FORCE INSPECTION.

Hendon --- Fighter Squadrons of the Auxiliary Air Force were on parade for inspection for the first time. These are the territorials of the air --- and their inspection was carried out by Air Vice Marshal Gessage, D.S.O.