COMMAND PERFORMANCE.

We have the honour to present these pictures of the arrival of their Majesties the King and Queen at the London Palladium, for the first ~~Royal~~ Command Performance of their reign. After being received by Mr Mark Ostrer their Majesties were greeted ~~affectionately~~ affectionately by the Duke and Duchess of Kent. The Royal party then entered their box --- which was framed in flowers.

The lights dim upon a brilliant audience --- and Gaumont British News now gives you exclusively the lights upon a brilliant stage --- the stars of the world's Variety Artists, appearing by royal command in aid of the Variety Artists' Benevolent Fund.

First on our programme --- Jack la Vier, on the trapeze.

And now --- the Crazy Gang

Next --- a Gipsy Wedding.. . . with all the lilt and gaiety of Romany romance

And so --- to a glorious finale --- God Save our King and Queen
