

CAPE FLIGHT.

Croydon Aerodrome saw the completion of yet another magnificent record flight ~~at~~ - Miss Elsie Turner was there watching as her fiancée Flying Officer Clouston landed with <sup>his wife</sup> Mrs Kirby Green ~~at the end of their Cape Flight.~~ They broke three records --- Croydon to the Cape they beat Amy Mollison's record by over two days --- Cape to Croydon they beat ~~Brook's~~ Brook's time by 1 day 15 hours --- and for the round trip they lowered Mrs Mollison's time by 16 hours ~~22 minutes.~~ ~~Their whole flight took them 7 days 22 hours 42 minutes.~~ <sup>When they landed</sup> ~~When they landed~~ ZGaumont British News secured an exclusive interview. On their wonderful journey home they actually secured yet another record. They brought to G.B. News these pictures of their arrival in South Africa, thus making news history too. At Johannesburg they ~~xxxxxxx~~ landed to break the record established by C.W.A. Scott in the Johannesburg Air Race so what with one thing and another it was <sup>an all-round</sup> ~~quite a~~ triumph. EYSTON.

Britain topped another big record in the same week... Captain George Eyston in his giant car Thunderbolt broke Sir Malcolm Campbell's record for land speed. On Bonneville Salt Flats at Utah <sup>he</sup> sent his mechanical monster hurtling over the ground at an average speed of 311.42 miles an hour ~~over two runs.~~ Congratulations --- to the fastest man on earth!
