ENGLAND AND WALES AT MIDDLESBROUGH.

Thirty thousand people watched an exciting game between England and Wales at Middlesbrough. This was the first time for 33 years that an international match had been played here. Perry scored for Wales 15 minutes after the kick-off. Then Matthews equalised for England. At half-time, the score was 1-1. Soon after resumption of play, England scored again to go into the lead, and the match ended with England winning by two goals to one.
