

PRINCESS BABA.

Marylebone --- a crowd at the Register Office betokened the wedding of Bob Gregory, the All-In Wrestler. And his bride-to-be was Miss Valerie Brooke, better known as Princess Baba, daughter of the White Rajah of Sarawak. Defying parental ~~disappx~~ disapproval, the happy pair descended the steps beneath a shower of good wishes. Unfortunately the honeymoon had to be postponed because the bridegroom had to do some wrestling.

DUKE OF KENT.

Purley --- the Journeyman Taylors' Benevolent Institution received a visit from the Duke of Kent, who planted a tree to commemorate the occasion. It would be interesting to know how many trees our royal family has planted at ~~xxx~~ different times. The Institution is known as Shirley --- which is what some little boy wrote on the fence --- luckily.

HORSE RACE.

Baltimore --- a race-crowd in the Maryland home of horses and race-meetings. But you could hardly call them a crowd at such a high class meeting, for the jockeys were all prominent members of society. In fact it's a race for the best people and even the horses were debutantes. But racing gets into the blood --- even blue blood --- and as they crammed along the homestretch a lady shouted Blimey step on it, sister.
