

409

AIR CRASH.

Croydon --- Ironically, our news this week contains a new tragedy of civil aviation. A German freight plane taking off, struck the top of a hangar and crashed in flames. Pilot, mechanic and wireless officer were all killed. Fire engines raced to the spot, but so fierce was the blaze that their efforts were unavailing.