

ENGLAND v. CZECHO-SLOVAKIA.

England ~~and Czechoslovakia~~ played a soccer international at White Hart Lane against Czechoslovakia.
~~at White Hart Lane~~ --- ~~and~~ the two teams came out together * England ~~the~~ side in dark shorts. / The visitors won the toss, and Mills of Chelsea kicked off. In the early part of the game England attacked strongly, but the Czechs put up a stubborn resistance round the goal. / The opening score came from the Arsenal man Crayston, who beat the goalie with a beautiful cross-shot. /

Czecho-Slovakia fought back keenly after this and raced through to the English half until at last they drew level --- one all. /

The final result was England 5 -- Czecho-Slovakia 4 --- surprisingly equal scoring, ~~in a match which was played so much~~ ~~in the visitors' territory.~~ But it's goals that count --- and here's another one for England. /
