

EVENING FASHIONS.

We take you now to a very high class resort to show you the latest winter fashions for the evening. Lovely ladies showing off lovely clothes --- the cream of society earning a guinea a day. / But there's no food on the tables --- no wine in the glasses --- the waiters must be looking somewhere else. Oh, so that's where waiters get to! /

Now here are some bathing fashions coming out of an aeroplane. Why bathing fashions in winter? Well, Father Christmas brought them, and the aeroplane is a modern reindeer sleigh. /

But these girls don't need an aeroplane --- they have <sup>comfy</sup> ~~fashions~~ of their own. ~~How would you like to nestle under one of these wings?~~ / ~~But~~ They were stolen from the turkey farm, and the turkeys held a protest meeting. / One girl ~~in a feathered~~ danced with a man who'd been eating toffee, and it came away in his hand. /

~~Remember they~~ ~~captain~~. The girls dress up in feathered finery, and the poor turkeys haven't got a rag to their backs. /
