

DUCHESS OF KENT.

The Duchess of Kent paid a visit to the Occupational Centre for Physically Handicapped at Poplar. It was the first of her two birthdays --- for she has one by Greek Orthodox Church reckoning, and one ordinary one. It seems like a fairy story come true --- the Princess who had two birthdays. Her Royal Highness was received by Mr George Lansbury, and afterwards gave her autograph to the girls of the centre --- an happy and unselfish way of spending a birthday, and we wish her many happy returns. Incidentally, it was the Duchess of Kent's thirty-first, but she looked so charming that now surely nobody will bother to stop at twenty-nine.
