

LADY ANNE CAVENDISH-BENTINCK.

Workshop Shopping Week was made gay with illuminations and grace by the presence of Lady Anne Cavendish-Bentinck, granddaughter of the Duke of Portland. Rumour has linked Lady Anne's name with King Leopold of the Belgians in romantic association, but this has been denied by the Duke. We are sorry if these rumours have caused annoyance to the families concerned, but we are glad to have the opportunity of including in our news, pictures of a lady so charming.

CHICAGO.

Chicago is famous for chilled meat, but in the international show there were thirteen thousand animals all very much alive, or else it's a lovely death. There was a rich dignity about this show, but the most attractive event was the sheepdog trials. All eyes ^{were} fixed on Scotty the border collie who held the audience spellbound as he went to work. It was a day of Scottish triumph ----- concluding rightfully with the skirl of the pipes.
